

Your Balbi Assessment

Gain confidence through knowledge, clarity, and understanding

Get quality, upfront legal advice as early on as possible.

Get legal advice even before you separate if you can. If you are already involved in a family law dispute and you have not yet gotten legal advice, do it as soon as you can.

Separation and conflict can be overwhelming. It can be difficult to know what to do next. Understanding your options and the divorce process will help to reduce your stress from the uncertainty of separation. Knowledge, clarity, and understanding will also increase your confidence through the process and help you make better legal decisions.

Other benefits of timely legal advice include:

- Avoid legal pitfalls
- Support your children effectively through the divorce
- Reduce the conflict with your spouse
- Gives you time to process and make informed decisions without being rushed
- Create a plan on how to move forward
- Save time and money to solve separation issues
- Identify the help you need
- Prepare your documents and details
- Set reasonable expectations for an easier transition

Our Intake Coordinator will answer your questions about our Balbi Assessment and help you decide if it is right for you.

Quality legal advice is available now

We offer a confidential, one-time, meeting with one of our lawyers to provide complete, practical, real-time legal advice. This meeting is called a Balbi Assessment.

We begin the Assessment by listening to you – your story, your goals, and concerns. From there, we give you our legal advice that includes:

- Identifying your legal issues
- Explaining your legal rights and responsibilities
- Discussing the processes available to solve your issues
- Giving you tips, strategies and resources
- answering your questions

You do not need to hire us as your lawyer to schedule your Balbi Assessment. Also, you can choose which of our talented lawyers you would rather meet with.

To keep things simple, our Assessment is a flat fee.

The Balbi Assessment is different than a typical law firm consultation, which is usually brief and focuses on hiring the lawyer. Instead, our focus is on you. We take the time to listen to you and our focus is on giving you the advice you need.

Do not be shy to get a second opinion

If you have already received legal advice and you want a second option, talking your matter over with another lawyer can be a good way to put your mind at ease or get other ideas on how to resolve your issues.
